

Maybe... if you felt the urgency...

For seven long years the people of Sderot have lived in a time warp of 15 SECONDS!

- 15 SECONDS to run for cover
- 15 SECONDS to find their children
- 15 SECONDS to gather the sleeping family from the top floor to the basement
- 15 SECONDS to wonder if today is the last day of their life!

The 24/7 terror is simply unimaginable!

Pause for a moment and think what if I could feel the urgency!
