

A very special evening with Dr. Jay Bielski

son of Zus Bielski, hero of the movie "Defiance"TM

A incredible story of courage in the face of horror!

During the darkest hours of World War II, three Russian brothers achieved the impossible: they transformed persecution and violence into an incredible tale of affirmation and survival. Living in the Soviet Republic of Belorussia, Tuvia, Asael and Zus Bielski fled to the woods to escape the Nazis. There they built an elaborate village for rescued Jews. The forest haven included a bakery, communal bath, synagogue, and even a theater company. The goal was saving their people. Tuvia

The Bielskis saved 1,200 men, women, and children, easily the largest rescue of Jews by Jews during World War II, and now their story has been publicized in the popular movie "Defiance."

The Young Israel of North Woodmere invites you to join us for an evening with Dr. Jay Bielski, son of Zus Bielski. Dr. Jay Bielski will entertain a question-and-answer session after the showing of the video about this story, which was first aired on the History Channel.

Dr. Jay Bielski, eldest son of Zus and Sonia, is a psychologist. Born in Israel, Jay came to the US in 1956 served in the USMC and later the IDF for the Yom Kippur War. Jay is a psychologist. His wife Margo is the daughter of the former Likud America Treasurer George Meissner. Jay and Margo have two sets of boy/girl twins and two of the boys are presently in the IDF Paratroopers one active and one reserves.

The History Channel version of the movie "Defiance" will be shown.

Sunday, March 1, 2009 - 7:00 pm

YINW
y o u n g i s r a e l o f n o r t h
w o o d m e r e